

PRODUCT BRIEF

PickUp.

A better way to get the game on.

An AI-powered pickup sports organizer for local players.

• THE FRICTION

The game is easy. Getting the game together is not.

- ◆ Players coordinate across noisy group chats
- ◆ Availability gets buried in message threads
- ◆ Spreadsheets track names but not momentum
- ◆ Someone still has to make fair teams

• WHO IT IS FOR

Who PickUp is for

Recreational players in one city or neighborhood

People who play casually one to four times a week

Groups that want a game, not a league-management system

Hosts who want less coordination overhead

• THE PRODUCT INSIGHT

The missing layer is not another court marketplace.

It is a simple coordination loop: discover a game, fill the spots, and show up with balanced teams.

• BALANCED PLAY

Fair teams without the spreadsheet

- ◆ Every player chooses a skill level from one to five
- ◆ PickUp sorts players by self-rated skill
- ◆ A simple snake draft distributes stronger and newer players
- ◆ Teams are ready before the game starts

Balanced teams

10 players

Team Lime

Jordan · 4
Maya · 3
Leo · 2

Team Coral

Sam · 4
Nina · 3
Dev · 2

High skill and new players alternate across the draft.

• THE DIFFERENTIATOR

The differentiator is deliberately simple

No black-box matching. No rankings. No machine-learning theater.

Just a transparent team split that makes casual games feel fair enough to keep coming back.

• GAME DETAILS

A game detail page that answers the important questions

- ◆ When is it?
- ◆ Where is it?
- ◆ Who is in?
- ◆ How many spots are left?
- ◆ What do the balanced teams look like?
